

Hard-to-abate sectors account for nearly 40% of global GHG emissions, making them critical for global efforts to reach net-zero emissions.

Note: Data is for scope 1 & 2 global GHG emissions.

Source: World Economic Forum and Accenture analysis derived from IEA, IAI.